City. I'd

suggest going at the end of their summer (our spring) when it's not too hot, and taking a boat ride in the harbour. And then there are lots of great restaurants... Sydney really is one of those destinations that lives up to the hype.

HOT STUFF

The French Riviera probably isn't the first place that springs to mind for diving but, in fact, these days the Mediterranean offers great visibility, some amazing wrecks and thriving ecosystems. Plus, of course, it's a lot closer to home than the Maldives or Caribbean. Diamond Diving (01908 234030; www.diamonddiving.net) offers three-night, three-dive weekends from £199 between late March and early November.

GOLD COMFORT

Instead of a dawn transfer from your French ski resort to Geneva airport, how about leaving the night before and checking into La Reserve hotel (0041 022 959 5959; www.lareserve.ch) It's 10 minutes' drive from the airport but best of all it offers a special après-ski package which includes a two-hour hamman treatment, a manicure and a pedicure. Cost is an indulgent £365 per person but that does include b & b and an airport transfer.
